Greene County Clerk Shane Schoeller today is reminding new residents who recently moved to Greene County that they have until tomorrow, Wednesday, July 6th, to register to be eligible for the August 2nd Primary Election. Mail-in (Postcard) registrations will also be accepted if they are postmarked by tomorrow Wednesday, July 6th.

When registering to vote, be sure to bring along an acceptable form of identification, such as a valid driver's license, current utility bill or bank statement. These forms of acceptable identification can be found at: www://s1.sos.mo.gov/CMSImages/ElectionGoVoteMissouri/acceptable_ids.pdf

Under state and federal laws, registered voters are not disqualified for moving within a county, but Schoeller urges anyone who has moved or changed his/her name to contact his office as soon as possible to avoid unnecessary delays to help ensure a better voting experience on the day of the Election. These changes must be completed in writing.
